Final interview will be scheduled when project nears completion.

Standard data and message rates apply. If the project goes beyond the 4 weeks of compensated check-in activity, it is up to the discretion of the researcher on how to proceed. You may be asked to conduct the final interview before the project completes, the final interview may be conducted after a brief gap in communication between the check-ins and the final interview, or you may not be eligible for the final interview. There are no plans to compensate participants for check-ins that go beyond the maximum of 4 weeks. You will only be compensated for the completed portion of the study; we reserve the right to stop the study at any time and for any or no reason.
